

PHOTOGRAPHIC SERVICE

Terms and Conditions of Supply

1. A written agreement is required for all use of the image material of the Royal Museums of Fine Arts of Belgium. The agreement is initiated by means of an order form and the payment of the appropriate fee.
2. The permission to reproduce images is granted for a period of one year. If use of the images does not take place within that period, the agreement must be renewed.
3. The reproductions can only be used in the manner specified on the order form. All other uses (additional printing, re-editing, inclusion in other publications or on other media, online use, etc.), require supplementary agreements.
4. The images are provided electronically (via URL) after the signing of a contract and receipt of payment.
5. Images are delivered six weeks after receipt of payment. In urgent cases, images are delivered within two weeks after receipt of payment (see Reproduction Fees).
6. In exceptional cases, if a digital image cannot be procured in time, the Museums reserve the right to provide a high quality scan of an ektachrome (300 ppi).
7. The costs for obtaining visual material can be found in the Reproduction Fees.
8. The images may not be transferred to third parties.
9. Reproductions of works of art belonging to the RMFAB collections should carry the following copyright mention:
© Royal Museums of Fine Arts of Belgium (RMFAB), Brussels /
10. No later than one month after printing, the applicant undertakes to submit one free copy of the publication (paper or multimedia) in each language in which it is published, to the following address:
Royal Museums of Fine Arts of Belgium – Library
Attn: Ingrid Goddeeris
Rue du Musée/Museumstraat 9, 1000 Brussels.
11. When the artist is still living or has died within the past seventy years, it is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that copyright fees (authors' rights) are not applicable. If necessary the applicant must him/herself obtain the prior authorization of the artist or the copyright holder or alternatively contact copyright management companies such as SABAM or SOFAM.
